Utterson, Ontario, P0B1M0

Discover the timeless beauty of this magnificent Tudor-style country residence. The Manor has been exquisitely restored to its original charm. The elegant façade harmonises perfectly with rolling hills and surrounding lush valleys. The exterior showcases stately beams, chimneys, and perfectly manicured grounds spanning 99 acres. The backyard oasis is complete with 42 ft. heated salt pool, hot tub spa, and a private dining and lounge area with tranquil views. Step inside to find refined elegance. Impeccable wood finishes, antique lion oak-carved sconces, and ornate hardware tell a story of history. French tapestries, lead ornamental windows, stained glass, and walnut panels from Toronto's historic and iconic locations add to the timeless allure. The Manor's restoration seamlessly blends the past with modern updates. The spacious parlour celebrates French 17th century mirrors and a grand fireplace. The great hall impresses with vaulted ceilings, antique pendants, and raised library adorned with a breathtaking stained glass window. Connected to the library is a stunning dining room with coffered ceiling, intricate cabinetry, and a servery leading to the eat-in kitchen featuring premium appliances and a lovely view. A 'secret' mezzanine walkway
